

TANGANYIKA

No. 56 OF 1962

I ASSENT,

Governor-General

4TH OCTOBER 1962

An Act to make provision for controlling and regulating the Production, Cultivation and Marketing of Agricultural Products, to repeal the African Agricultural Products (Control and Marketing) Ordinance and the Livestock Control Ordinance, and for purposes connected therewith and incidental thereto

I.....I

ENACTED by the Parliament of Tanganyika.

1. This Act may be cited as the Agricultural Products (Control and Marketing) Act, 1962, and shall come into operation upon such date as the Minister, by notice published in the Gazette, shall appoint.

Short title and commencement

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires-
"agricultural product" includes livestock and products derived from livestock, but does not include meat, hides or skins, or horn or bone,

Interpretation

"Board" means a Board established or deemed to have been established under this Act;

"compulsory marketing order" means an order or directions issued under this Act or any other written law whereby a producer of an agricultural product is required to sell such product to or through a specified person;

"Minister" means the Minister for the time being responsible for agriculture;

"to produce" and "production" in relation to livestock and the products of livestock, includes to rear and graze, and the rearing and grazing of, the livestock concerned, and "producer" includes a person who raises or grazes livestock;

(3) Every direction, consent or approval of the Minister and every regulation of the Governor in Council or the Minister, under the Ordinance hereby repealed, which is of force and effect immediately before this Act comes into operation, shall continue of force and effect until it expires or is revoked or repealed under this Act.

FIRST SCHEDULE

(Section 4 (2))

(a) Constitution of Boards

1. A Board shall consist of such number of members as shall be specified in the order establishing the Board. The members shall be appointed by the Minister.
2. The Minister may, on the advice of the Board, by order published in the Gazette, from time to time vary the composition of a Board.
3. A member of a Board appointed under the provisions of paragraph 1 shall hold office for such period not exceeding three years as the Minister may specify in his appointment, unless his appointment shall have been previously revoked; and he shall be eligible for re-appointment.
4. If any member of a Board is incapacitated by illness, temporary absence from Tanganyika or other sufficient cause, from performing the duties of his office, another person may be appointed by the Minister to act in his stead, and every person so appointed shall have all the powers and authority of the member for whom he is acting until such member is again able to perform the duties of his office or ceases to hold office as a member of the Board.
5. A member may resign by giving notice in writing to the Minister.
6. If any member dies, or is permanently incapacitated from holding office for any cause, or resigns, or if his appointment is revoked, the Minister may appoint in his place another person, who shall hold office for the unexpired residue of the period of office of the member in whose place he is appointed.
7. One member appointed by the Minister to a Board shall be nominated by him to be the Board's Chairman. A Board shall elect annually from amongst its members a Vice-Chairman.

(b) Staff

8. A Board may appoint at such salary and upon such terms as it thinks fit a secretary and such other officers or servants as it may deem necessary for the conduct of its business and operations.
9. A Board may-
  - (i) grant gratuities or retiring allowances to any officer or employee of the Board;
  - (ii) establish and make contributions to a superannuation fund or medical fund for its officers and employees;
  - (iii) require any officer or employee to make contributions to any superannuation fund or medical fund so established.
10. A Board may from time to time appoint and employ upon such terms and conditions as it may think fit, such agents or contractors as it may deem necessary.

(c) Delegation

11. A Board may by resolution delegate to any committee of members or of members and employees, member, officer or employee of the Board, either generally or in any particular instance, the exercise of any power or function which the Board is authorized to exercise and the conduct of any of the business of the Board, save that it shall not delegate its power to make orders or give directions under section 7, or to impose a levy.

(d) Meetings and Procedure

12. An ordinary meeting of the Board shall be convened by the Chairman and the notice specifying the place, date and time of the meeting shall be sent to each member at his usual place of business or residence not less than fourteen days before the date of such meeting. In case the Chairman shall be ill or absent from Tanganyika, the Vice-Chairman may convene such a meeting on his behalf.
13. The Chairman, or in his absence the Vice-Chairman, shall be bound to convene a special meeting of the Board upon receipt of a request in writing in that behalf signed by not less than two members of the Board. Not less than fourteen days' notice of such a meeting shall be given to all members of the Board in the manner prescribed in paragraph 12.
14. A quorum of the Board shall be one-half of the total number of members of the Board, and where there are an uneven number of members, shall be the next whole number above one-half.

15. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 14, a Board may act notwithstanding a vacancy in its number.

16. No act or other proceeding of a Board shall be invalid by reason only of the fact that there is some defect in the appointment of a person purporting to be a member thereof.

17. In the absence of the Chairman and Vice-Chairman from any meeting of a Board, a temporary Chairman may be appointed by the meeting from among its members present.

18. The Chairman, or in his absence the Vice-Chairman or temporary Chairman, as the case may be, shall in addition to his ordinary vote have a casting vote.

19.-41) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 11, and of any delegation made thereunder, all acts, matters or things authorized or required to be done by a Board shall be decided by resolution at a meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present.

(2) A decision of the majority of the members present and voting at a meeting of a Board shall be deemed to be the decision of the Board.

20. The seal of a Board shall be affixed by the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, or temporary Chairman and witnessed by two members of the Board.

21. Subject to the provision of this Schedule, a Board shall have the power to regulate its own procedure.

(e) Financial Procedure

22.--(1) Any moneys raised by a levy imposed by a Board, and any other revenue of the Board shall be applied by the Board for the purposes of the functions for which the Board is established and for all or any of the following purposes:-

- (a) payment of the expenses and charges incurred by the Board and for which the Board may become liable in the course of its functions and duties;
- (b) payment of and for such staff as the Board may employ for the purpose of carrying out its functions and duties;
- (c) the marketing and advertising of the specified agricultural product;
- (d) the provision of such services as the Board considers necessary to promote the economic development, production or preparation of the specified product, or to assist the producer in carrying out the provisions of this Act or the provisions of any other law for the time being in force relating to the cultivation, preparation, handling or marketing of the specified product or the prevention or eradication of the diseases thereof;
- (e) such other purposes as may be prescribed.

(2) A Board may from time to time, with the approval of the Minister, invest all or any part of any fund under its control and management in such manner as the Board shall think fit.

23. A Board shall, when so directed by the Minister, establish and maintain a reserve fund and, when so directed, shall make such payments into such fund and use the fund for such purposes as may be specified in the directions.

24. A Board may, with the prior approval of the Minister, from time to time raise or borrow, whether by way of mortgage or otherwise, such sums of money for or in connection with the exercise of its functions, powers and duties under this Act as the Board may think necessary.

25.--(1) Every Board shall, not less than two months before the expiry of each financial year, pass detailed estimates of the revenue and expenditure of the Board for the next financial year.

(2) Such estimates shall be passed at a meeting of the Board specially convened for the purpose.

(3) Every Board shall before the commencement of each financial year submit a copy of the annual estimates as passed by the Board to the Minister for approval and when so approved the Board shall be informed accordingly by the Minister. Where additional financial provision is required in respect of any financial year supplementary estimates thereof shall be passed by the Board and submitted by the Board for approval of the Minister, and when so approved the Board shall be informed accordingly by the Minister.

(4) No Board shall incur expenditure which has not been included in such approved estimates except with the sanction of the Minister:

Provided that re-allocations of expenditure within the limits of the approved estimates which shall not increase or decrease any one item of expenditure by more than one hundred pounds may be made by the Board without such sanction.

(5) The annual and supplementary estimates shall be prepared in such form and shall contain such detailed information as the Minister may require.

(6) The annual and supplementary estimates as approved by the Minister shall be recorded in the minutes of the Board.

26.-(1) A Board shall cause to be kept proper books of account with respect to-

(a) all sums of money received and expended by the Board and the matters in respect of which the receipt or expenditure is made;

(b) the assets and liabilities of the Board, and shall cause to be made out for every financial year a balance sheet showing in detail the assets and liabilities, and the income and expenditure of the Board. Every such balance sheet shall contain a certificate by the Board that it has adopted the same.

(2) The accounts of the Board shall be audited annually by an auditor appointed from time to time by the Board with the approval of the Minister.

SECOND SCHEDULE

(Section 14 (3))

1. In this Schedule the "old Board" means the Board that is dissolved and the "new Board" means the Board that is established.

2. The provisions of this Schedule shall take effect notwithstanding the dissolution of the old Board.

(a) Provisions relating to property and contracts, etc.

3. All assets and liabilities which immediately before its dissolution were vested in or incurred by the old Board shall pass by succession to the new Board, and the new Board shall have all powers necessary to take possession of, recover and deal with such assets and discharge such liabilities.

4. Upon the dissolution of the old Board, the old Board shall deliver to the new Board, or as the new Board may order, all moveable property vested in the old Board, and all books, papers, documents, minutes, receipts and ledgers appertaining to the old Board and to its operations.

5. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 6 of this Schedule, every agreement, whether in writing or not, to which the old Board was a party immediately before the dissolution of the old Board, and whether or not of such nature that rights, liabilities and obligations thereunder could be assigned, shall have effect as from the establishment of the new Board as if-

(i) the new Board had been a party to the agreement,

(ii) for any reference (however worded and whether expressed or implied) to the old Board there were substituted in respect of anything to be done on or after the establishment of the new Board a reference to the new Board.

6-(1) The appointment of any officer or servant of the old Board subsisting immediately before the dissolution of the old Board shall, if such officer or servant so agrees, be deemed to be made by the new Board, and for the purposes of determining the rights of gratuity on retirement, the service of any such officer or servant shall be regarded as continuous from the time he was appointed by the old Board.

(2) When an officer or servant of the old Board whose appointment would not have expired or terminated (had the old Board not been dissolved) before the date on which the new Board is established does not agree to serve under the new Board, the Minister shall provide for the payment in lieu of notice of such officer or servant, and in so far as provision is made in that behalf in the terms on which any such officer or servant was appointed by the old Board, for the payment of a gratuity, and the grant of leave, in proportion to the length of such officer's or servant's service under the old Board, and the payment of passage allowances; and the cost of such payments shall be borne by the new Board.

7. Any proceedings pending immediately before the dissolution of the old Board to which the old Board were party shall be continued as if the new Board were party thereto in lieu of the old Board.

8. Where anything has been commenced by or under the authority of the old Board prior to the dissolution of the old Board and such thing is within the powers of the new Board or was done in relation to any of the matters transferred by this Schedule from the old Board to the new Board, such thing may be carried on and completed by, or under the authority of; the new Board.

9. The Minister may by order provide for any other matters which appear to him to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of securing the effective transfer of any assets or liabilities vested in the new Board by virtue of this Schedule, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing may appoint any person to do any act or sign any document for and on behalf of the, old Board whereby the assets of the old Board may be transferred to the new Board.

(b) Provisions relating to orders, directions and levy

10. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 12, every lawful order and direction made or given, and every levy imposed, by the old Board shall be deemed to have been made, given or imposed by the new Board until it expires, or is revoked or replaced by the new Board:

Provided that no such order, direction or levy shall extend unless it is thereafter expressly extended or amended in that behalf to any producer or area to which it did not apply immediately before the dissolution of the old Board.

11. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 12, all directions, consents, sanctions, approvals and regulations given or made by the Minister to or in relation to the old Board shall be deemed to have been given to or made in relation to the new Board until they expire or are revoked or replaced.

12. The provisions of paragraphs 10 and 11 shall have effect only in so far as they affect a specified agricultural product which both was subject to the regulation and control of the old Board and is subject to the regulation and control of the new Board, and within the area of the new Board.

Passed in the National Assembly on the-twenty-sixth day of September, 1962.

Clerk of the National Assembly
