Duties of officer-in-charge	(2) Every officer-in-charge shall supervise and control all matters in connection with the prison to which he is appointed, and shall be responsible to the Commissioner for the conduct and treatment of the prison officers and prisoners under his control and for the due observance by prison officers and prisoners of the requirements of this Act and of the regulations made and instructions and orders issued thereunder. (3) Every officer-in-charge shall be charged with the safe custody of arms, accouterments, ammunition, clothing and all other public stores and foodstuffs issued and delivered for the use of the prison, the prison officers and the prisoners under his control and with all public money for which he may be held accountable, and also, subject to the provisions of this Act and of any rules made thereunder, with all valuables, money, articles of clothing and other property entrusted to his keeping as being the property of prisoners, and shall account for the same in case of their being lost or damaged otherwise than by unavoidable accident, theft, robbery or lawful use.
Responsibilities of officer-in charge of stores, etc
PART III
POWERS, DUTIES AND PRIVILEGES OF PRISON OFFICERS
General powers and duties of prison officers	9.-(1) Every prison officer shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as are by law conferred or imposed on prison officers of his rank, and shall obey all lawful directions in respect of the execution of his office which he may from time to time receive from his senior officers. (2) Every prison officer shall be deemed to be on duty at all times and may at any time be detailed for duty in any part of Tanganyika.
Cases where prison officers have the power and privileges of police officers	10. While in charge of prisoners for the purpose of conveying any prisoner to or from a prison or for the purpose of apprehending any prisoner who may have escaped from a prison, or who may have escaped while being conveyed to or from a prison, or for the purpose of preventing the rescue of any prisoner or for the purpose of preventing an, attack on a prison, every Prison officer shall have all the powers and privileges of a police officer.
Arrest of deserters	11. Any prison officer may, on reasonable suspicion that any person is a deserter, arrest such person without a warrant and shall forthwith take him before a magistrate.

12.-(1) Any prison officer may examine anything within, or being brought into or out of, a prison and may stop and search any vehicle or person within a prison or going into or out of a prison, or, whether within or outside a prison, any person who, or any vehicle which, is without authority close to a prisoner if he has reason to suspect that such person or vehicle is carrying a prohibited article or any property belonging to the Government in use in a prison.

Power to examine persons or vehicles

(2) A senior officer on duty in a prison may refuse admission to the prison to any person who is not willing to be searched.

(3) A senior officer on duty in a prison may order any person within a prison who refuses to be searched to leave the prison and, if such a person refuses to leave, may cause him to be removed from the prison, and for that purpose may use such force as may be necessary.

(4) If on stopping and searching any vehicle or person under subsection (1) a prison officer finds any prohibited article or any property belonging to the Government in use in a prison he may arrest the person or the person in the vehicle who appears to have charge of the article or property and shall, as soon as practicable, cause such person to be handed over to a police officer or, in the absence of a police officer, to be taken to the nearest police station.

(5) Any search of a woman under this section shall be made by another woman with due regard to decency.

13.-(1) Any prison officer may use such force against a prisoner as is reasonably necessary in order to make him obey lawful orders which he refuses to obey or in order to maintain discipline in a prison.

Use of force by prison officer

(2) Any prison officer may use any weapons, including firearms, which may have been issued to him against a prisoner if such prisoner-

- (a) is escaping or attempting to escape and refuses, when called upon, to return; or
- (b) is engaged with other persons in breaking out or attempting to break out of any part of a prison and continues to break out or to attempt to break out when called upon to desist; or
- (c) is engaged with others in riotous behaviour in a prison and refuses to desist when called upon to do so; or
- (d) is endangering the life of, or is likely to inflict grave injury to, the prison officer or to any other prison officer or to any other person and the use of weapons, including firearms, is the only practicable way of controlling the prisoner:

Provided that weapons shall not be used as authorized in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this subsection unless the officer has reasonable cause to believe that he cannot otherwise prevent the escape, breaking out or riotous behavior, as the case may be, and has given a warning to such prisoner that he is about to use such weapons against him and such warning is unheeded:

And provided further that no prison officer shall, in the presence of his senior officer, use his weapons against a prisoner as authorized under paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) of this subsection except under the orders of such senior officer:

And provided further that the use of a weapon under this section shall be aimed, as far as possible, to disable and not to kill.

Power to take photographs, fingerprints
etc

14. Any officer-in-charge may cause photographs, measurements, footprints and casts thereof, palm prints or fingerprints to be taken of any prisoner by any prison officer or other person authorized by the Commissioner in that behalf, and where any person refuses to permit his photographs, measurements, footprints or casts thereof, palm prints or fingerprints to be taken, the officer may, use or cause to be used such force as may be necessary to secure the photographs, footprints or casts thereof, palm prints or fingerprints as the case may be:

Provided that the photographs, measurements, footprints and casts thereof, palm prints and fingerprints of a prisoner who is subsequently acquitted and discharged shall be destroyed upon the prisoner's release by the court.

Non-liability for act done under authority of a warrant

15.-(1) Where the defence to any suit instituted against a prison officer is that the act complained of was done in obedience to a certificate or warrant purporting to be issued by a court or other competent authority, the court shall, upon production of the certificate or warrant and upon proof that the act complained of was done in obedience to such certificate or warrant, enter judgment in favour of such prison officer.

(2) No proof of the signature on a certificate or warrant shall be required unless the court has reason to doubt the genuineness thereof; and where it shall be proved that such signature is not genuine, judgment shall nevertheless be given in favour of the prison officer if it is proved that, at the time the act complained of was committed, he believed on reasonable grounds that the signature was genuine.

Leave of prison officers

16. Prison officers shall, subject to the exigencies of the service, be granted leave in accordance with the regulations made under this Act.

PART IV.

RETIREMENT BENEFITS WHICH MAY BE GRANTED TO NON-PENSIONABLE OFFICERS payable after twelve or more years service

17. Every non-pensionable prison officer of or below the rank of prison officer Grade I shall, on discharge after continuous good service extending over a period of not less than twelve years, be eligible to receive a gratuity calculated at the rate of two-thirds of a month's pay of the rank in which he was serving at the time of discharge for every completed year of service up to a maximum of twenty-one years.

Proportional gratuities payable in certain circumstances

18. When any non-pensionable prison officer of or below the rank of prison officer Grade I-

- (a) dies;
- (b) is discharged as medically unfit for further service (such unfitness not having been caused by his own misconduct or negligence);
- (c) is discharged on account of reduction of establishment; or

(d) having been enrolled in the Service before the eighth day of December, 1961, is required to retire from the Service or ceases to serve therein in accordance with the provisions of section 10 of the Pensions Ordinance, before completing twelve years' continuous good service, the Principal Secretary to the Treasury may, on the recommendation of the Commissioner, authorize the payment to his estate or to him, as the case may be, of a proportional part of the gratuity which he would have earned under section '17 if he had completed the said period of service.

Cap. 371

19. Any gratuity which would have been due and payable to any non-pensionable officer had he taken his discharge under the provisions of this Act shall, in the event of his re-engaging for a further term and dying in the service before the completion of such term, be deemed to have belonged to him for the purpose of payment to his estate.

Gratuities earned to be deemed part of the officer's estate

PART V

MEDICAL OFFICERS

20. (1) There shall be a medical officer responsible for every prison.

Medical officers

(2) The medical officer shall be responsible for the health of all prisoners in a prison and shall cause all prisoners to be medically examined at such times as may be prescribed.

(3) A medical officer may, whether or not a prisoner consents thereto, take or cause to be taken such action (including the forcible feeding, inoculation, vaccination and any other treatment of the prisoner, whether of the like nature or otherwise) as he may consider necessary to safeguard or restore the health of the prisoner or to prevent the spread of disease.

(4) All actions of a medical officer, prison officer, medical orderly, or other person acting under subsection (3) or in pursuance of directions given thereunder, shall be lawful.

21.-(1) The medical officer shall examine every prisoner on admission and prior to discharge, and shall record the state of health of the prisoner and such other particulars as may be prescribed, and until so examined every prisoner on admission shall, so far as is possible, be kept apart from other prisoners.
